Tokaido Shinagawa-shuku Course

During the Edo Period (1603-1868), Shinagawa-shuku prospered as a station town on the Tokaido, the ancient highway between Kyoto and Edo. The Tokaido Shinagawa-shuku course introduced in this issue will help you explore the area while getting a sense of its history and culture.

Kagata-jinja Shrine

Kagata-jinja Shrine, also known as Susaki Benten and is considered the god of intelligence and art, was depicted in an ukiyo-e painting by Utagawa Hiroshige. The stone monument on the shrine's grounds labeled "Kujirazuka" marks the spot where the bones of a whale that strayed into the waters off Shinagawa in 1798 were buried.

Seiseki Park

[Shinagawa-shuku honjin site]

Seiseki Park was built on the site of Shinagawa-shuku's honjin—the place where feudal lords and their retainers would stay during their journeys along the Tokaido. Emperor Meiji stopped there in 1868, making it a seiseki, or sacred site, which gave the park its name. Today, Seiseki Park is a popular place for recreation and relaxation.

Former Shinagawa Police Station Shinagawabashi Traffic Waiting Area [Minami-Shinagawa Sakuragashi Machinaka Tourist Information Center]

This information center was once a police box built around 1929. The area was apparently a major thoroughfare on the former Tokaido. As a tourist information center, it provides information on the history, culture and sightseeing spots in the Shinagawa-shuku area.

Location

1-3-4 Minami-Shinagawa

Hours

10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on
Mondays, Thursdays and Saturdays

Shinagawa Uchimizu Project 2024: Let's Lower the City's Midsummer Temperature by 2°C

● Uchimizu (sprinkling water on the ground) in midsummer brings a cool breeze to our city.

Dates: July 22 (Mon.) to Aug. 22 (Thu.)

Uchimizu procedures:

- 1. Have water ready.
It is a good idea to use recycled water such as water left over after a bath.
- 2. Sprinkle the water on the ground.
Sprinkle the water together with your family and neighbors.
- 3. Enjoy the coolness.
The water sprinkled on the ground will cool the surroundings. If you do this in the morning and evening, the cooling effect lasts longer.

Note: Shinagawa City is offering rental goods for uchimizu (ladles, pails, buckets and flags). For details, please visit the Shinagawa City website.
